26. Is conversion of physical shares of the Company into demat (electronic) shares compulsory? How to convert physical shares into demat shares?

SEBI has recently amended relevant provisions of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 to disallow listed companies from accepting request for transfer of securities which are held in physical form, with effect from April 1, 2019. The shareholders, who continue to hold shares and other types of securities of listed companies in physical form even after this date, will not be able to lodge the shares with Company / its RTA for further transfer. They will need to convert them to demat form compulsorily if they wish to effect any transfer. Only the requests for transmission and transposition of securities in physical form, will be accepted by the listed companies / their RTAs.

Procedure for Dematerialisation of shares:

- Shareholder should submit the duly filled in Demat Request Form (DRF) along with physical certificate(s) to the concerned Depository Participant (DP).

- DP will give the acknowledgement receipt to the shareholder for having received the DRF along with the original share certificates.
- DP intimates the relevant Depository of such requests through the system.
- DP submits the DRF along with certificate(s) to the Company's R&TA.
- The Company's R&TA confirms the dematerialisation request from Depository.
- The Company's R&TA, after dematerialising the certificate(s), updates accounts and informs concerned Depository regarding completion of dematerialisation. Depository updates its accounts and informs the DP.
- DP updates the demat account of the shareholder.
- The entire process should be completed within 21 days.

27. What is nomination facility? What is the procedure of appointing a nominee?

Section 72 of the Companies Act, 2013, provides the facility of nomination to shareholders. This facility is mainly useful for individuals holding shares in sole name. In the case of joint holding of shares by individuals, nomination will be effective only in the event of death of all joint holders.

Investors, especially those who are holding shares in single name, are advised to avail of the nomination facility by submitting the prescribed Form SH-13 for initial registration of nomination and Form SH-14 for cancellation and variation of nomination as per the Act to the Company's R&TA.

However, if shares are held in dematerialised form, nomination has to be registered with the concerned DP directly, as per the format prescribed by the DP

28. What is the procedure for obtaining duplicate share certificate(s) in case of loss /misplacement of original share certificate(s)?

Shareholders who have lost/misplaced share certificate(s) should inform the Company's R&TA immediately about loss of share certificate(s), quoting their folio number and details of share certificate(s), if available. The R&TA shall immediately mark a 'stop transfer' on the folio to prevent any further transfer of shares covered by the lost share certificate(s). It is recommended that the shareholders should lodge FIR with police station regarding loss of share certificate(s). They should send their request for duplicate share certificate(s) to the Company's R&TA and submit documents as required by the R&TA.
